DECORATIVE HELMET FINIAL FOR A NEWEL

A unique way to display team loyalty!

Cairo, GA—Everyone has a favorite team, that special team that you stick with through thick and thin, cheering through the wins and offering consolation through the losses. The invention of the Decorative Helmet Finial for a Newel offers a new and unique way to display that team loyalty. This clever invention is designed as a decorative helmet that is made to attach to the top of a newel post, handrail, gate entrance, mailbox, or other entryway to a home or business. Designed to be produced in a variety of sizes, the places for display are endless, and left to the imagination.

The Decorative Helmet Finial for a Newel was invented by Walter Donalson, Jr. of Cairo, Georgia. His design will surely become a conversation piece and spark team spirit for those who display it. According to the inventor, “The Decorative Helmet Finial for a Newel says to everyone, ‘this is my favorite team’, giving avid supporters a feeling of pride and satisfaction. Unique, fun, and innovative, my invention would find a receptive market among sports enthusiasts everywhere.”
